

I was expecting a form to fill out, but without that...I would like to see everything captioned on television. It is my only means of understanding the programming. For instance, Larry King is often not captioned. CNN is not captioned in the evenings. I am one of 28 million people with hearing loss in this country. Help us, please.